Chapter 4
Promotion Ventures

4.1 Samskrutha Vidya Mandira (Prathama, Kavyaand Other Courses)

The Samskrutha Vidya Mandira continued its mission of popularising the Sanskrit language among students during the academic year 2025–26, with the Prathama examination once again drawing strong participation and encouraging results. Of the 157 students enrolled, as many as 143 appeared for the Prathama examination, of whom 56 secured a First Class and 35 a Second Class, while 52 students passed and 14 remained absent — a healthy pass record that reflects the sustained interest in Sanskrit learning fostered by the institution. The year's top performers set a high benchmark for their peers: Apoorva D and Kaustubh K each scored an impressive 182 out of 200 marks (91 per cent) to jointly claim the top rank, while Akshay M Bhardwaj followed closely with 179 out of 200 marks (89.5%) to secure the third position. These results affirm the continuing success of the Samskrutha Vidya Mandira in nurturing a new generation of Sanskrit scholars.

4.2 Kalavedi

MES Kalavedi's academic year 2025–26 began on a triumphant note, with its Yuvajanothsava inaugurated by the renowned musician and Central Sangeet Natak Akademi member Dr. G. N. Nagamani Srinathand presided over by Dr. T. T. Srinivasan, Chief Mentor of MES Kalavedi. The occasion also brought institutional recognition, as the college emerged first among all MES institutions and was awarded the coveted Rolling Trophy — a fitting tribute to Kalavedi's sustained contribution to the promotion of Indian performing arts.

Over the course of the year, Kalavedi organised an exceptionally rich calendar of academic, culturaland outreach programmes. A landmark development was the centre's formal affiliation with the Karnataka State Dr. Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University in December 2025, which lent fresh academic standing to its music and dance instruction. The year's cultural highlights included an International Fusion Music Concert and a Vocal Concert in December, a special Vocal Concert held in memory of the celebrated Karnataka Kalashri Vidwan Sri Gudibande A. Kumaraswamyand an Integrated Vocal, Instrumentaland Nrithya Concert in January, complemented by a Chitravina Concert and the prestigious 6th International Veena Conference spanning the turn of the year. Kalavedi also represented MES at the Bharatha Rangamahotsava 2026 National Theatre Festival, hosted a Gamaka programme in Februaryand staged the three-day Prof. M.P.L. Sastry Music Festival in mid-February. The calendar continued through the year with further music concerts in March, Mayand June, a representation at the Craftroots Exhibition in Apriland a two-day Dance Festival in April, rounding out a comprehensive programme of performance and pedagogy. Each of these events drew active participation from eminent scholars, artists, faculty membersand students, making a significant and sustained contribution to the promotion of Indian Knowledge Systems, the performing arts, researchand community outreach.

4.3 Rangashale

The Rangashale, MES's dedicated theatre training wing, enrolled fourteen students during the 2025–26 academic year and remained an active presence in the institution's cultural life. In collaboration with Kalavedi, Rangashale set up a photographic exhibition stall showcasing MES's cultural activities during the Bharata Ranga Mahotsava and Ranga Parishe programme, held from 1 to 6 February 2026, offering visitors a visual chronicle of the institution's artistic journey.

The highlight of Rangashale's year was the celebration of World Theatre Day alongside the Smt. Vimala Rangachar Drama Festival 2026, held over three consecutive evenings from 27 to 29 March 2026. The festival opened with a staging of T. P. Kailasam's play Huttadalli Hutta on 27 March, followed by Masti Venkatesha Iyengar's Kakanakote on 28 Marchand concluded with a rendition of Shudraka's classical Sanskrit play Mricchakatika on 29 March. The festival drew a large and appreciative audience across its three days, reaffirming Rangashale's role in keeping both classical and modern Indian theatre alive for contemporary audiences.

4.4 Prof. MPL Sastry Centre for Vedic Studies

The Prof. MPL Sastry Centre for Vedic Studies had a defining year in 2025–26, culminating in its formal inauguration on 12 March 2026 after receiving a five-member affiliation committee from Karnataka Sanskrit University in January. In the months surrounding its launch, the centre established itself as a hub of scholarly activity, opening with a Panel Discussion on Women's Leadership in February, followed in quick succession by a National Conference on Manuscriptology in early March and, immediately after its inauguration, back-to-back National Conferences on Śivatattvaratnākara and on Sage Vidyaraṇya and his Contribution to Indian Philosophy, held on 13 and 26 March respectively.

The centre's activities continued into the following months with the Gyana Bharatam Mission - an initiative devoted to the preservation, interpretationand propagation of Indian Knowledge Systems - in April, followed by a special talk from the eminent scholar Dr. Shatavadhani R. Ganesh in May. The year's programme concluded with Yogotsava-2026 in June, a large-scale event that brought together participants from all eight MES branches, with competitions organised across categories ranging from the primary level to the degree leveland even among faculty members. As with Kalavedi's programmes, each of these events was successfully executed as per the annual plan, with active participation from eminent scholars, artists, faculty, studentsand invited guests, together making a substantial contribution to the promotion of Indian Knowledge Systems, researchand community outreach.

5.5.3 Contribution towards Provident Fund and Employees State Insurance

5.5.3.1 Employees Provident Fund (EPF):

The Provident Fund is a post-retirement social security benefit provided under the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. Both the employee and employer generally contribute 12% of the employee's basic wages towards PF every month. For employees drawing basic wages above ₹15,000/- per month @ 12% ₹1800/- contributions may be restricted to the statutory ceiling, subject to applicable provisions. Employees may also opt for additional contributions on actual basic wages or particular amount as Voluntary Provident Fund (VPF) only from the employee additional contribution subject to applicable rules and consent.

During the financial year 2025–26, a total contribution of ₹.114.33 lakhs was made towards the Provident Fund for 493 employees. PF claims and settlements were processed online through the employer/authorised consultant or directly by employees, as applicable, ensuring timely and efficient settlement of eligible claims.

5.5.3.2 Employees' State Insurance (ESI):

Employees drawing wages of ₹21,000/- or less per month are covered under the Employees' State Insurance Scheme, subject to applicable provisions. Contributions towards ESI are made by both the employer and the employee at the prescribed rates.

During the financial year 2025–26, a total contribution of ₹0.18 lakhs was made towards ESI. The scheme enabled eligible employees and their dependants to avail themselves of various social security benefits, including medical care, sickness benefits, maternity benefitsand benefits arising from employment-related injuries, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the ESI Scheme.

Under this scheme, six teaching and one non-teaching staff appointed by the Management who retired on superannuation have been paid Rs. 40,000/- each and two aided teaching staff have been paid Rs. 20,000/- during the year 2025-26.

The total amount paid is Rs. 5.60 lakhs for 15 exit employees

5.5.6 Fee Concession to the children of staff at MES Institutions

Since 2002, the Management has been extending fee concession in the form of exemption from payment of Tuition Fee and Special Development Fee to one child (studying in any of the MES Institutions) of permanent employees appointed by the Management. This was revised in 2021 by limiting the concession amount to a lumpsum amount of Rs.20,000/-.

The matter was revisited in 2022 and the earlier policy of waiver in payment of Tuition Fee and Special Development Fee was retained only for children of non-teaching staff whereas for children of teaching staff concession of Rs. 20,000/- is continued.

86 children of staff members availed fee concessions amounting to Rs. 30.32 lakhs during 2025-26. Of these 69 children are from the two Schools, 14 from PU Colleges and 3 are from the two degree Colleges. Of these 46 are children of teaching staff and 40 are children of non-teaching staff.

5.6 SBI cycle distribution

CSR Initiative by State Bank of India - Bicycle Donation to MES Students.

As part of this commitment, under the scheme 'Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao' launched by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of Bharat, Shri Narendra Modi, on 22nd January 2015.

The MES is banking with the State Bank of India (SBI)* since it's inception and has always been deeply committed to the upliftment of society through its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives, with a special focus on education, empowerment and community welfare.

In connection with this SBI donated 100 bicycles to girl students studying in Classes 7, 8 & 9 of MES Kishora Kendra Schools, Malleswaram and Vidyaranyapura.

This initiative aims to encourage regular school attendance, improve mobility and promote self-reliance among young learners. We believe this support will not only ease the students' daily commute but also empower them to pursue their education with greater enthusiasm and confidence.

The bicycles were received in two installments and were distributed through a formal function in the presence of Bank officials, GB Chairman & HOIs of the respective Institutions along with the concerned employees from the Management. The details are as follows:

1. 50 bicycles on 12.01.2026 at MES Kishora Kendra School, Malleswaram
2. 50 bicycles on 27.03.2026 at MES Kishore Kendra Public School, Vidyaranyapura

MES sincerely thanks State Bank of India for this generous contribution towards the education and empowerment of girl students.
